

Notice

2018-10-30

Papua New Guinea suspends visa on arrival for a month

The relevant authority of Papua New Guinea announced the temporary suspension to visa on arrival for the purpose of enhancing border security during APEC conference. The suspension takes effect today until 30 November 2018.

Macao SAR Passport holders who intend to travel Papua New Guinea during the above-mentioned period should contact the relevant authority to enquire about the visa formalities and immigration arrangement before departure.